LONDON, Sept. 6.—There is one thing that the days preceding the opening of this week has shown. If the government should decide upon a policy which is so definite that it might lead to war, Britain will stand unitedly behind the consequences of such a decision. Jenny Morris, erect, smiling lady whose name is worn in the hearts of thousands of Canadian soldiers who she befriended in the tragic days of the Great War, arrived in Edmonton Sunday and quietly said she was glad to be home.

And that simple, sincere remark by the "mother" of the Princess Patricia's Canadian Light Infantry, whose London, England home was always open to her "boys" from the front, seemed to sum up all the had to say.
She had never forgotten her Canadian comrades. She called them by their first names as they came in to see her again at the Macdonald hotel. For them all she had a merry smile, a kiss, a happy memory, and a cheery message.

LABOR TOPIC IS SUNDAY SERMON BY CITY PASTOR

Rev. William M. Grant chose as his subject "Labor's Appeal to the Church." For his subject Sunday morning he addressed the congregation of Metropolitan church.

A union between labor and the church is absolutely necessary in an effort to combat the war fever which threatens to sweep the world, he said.

While we often do not agree with the methods employed by the labor movement, we do sympathize with them and sympathize with them in their ideals.

The clergyman proposed three solutions for the tangle. The manufacture of instruments of war should be rationalized in the hands of the government of the world to avert the possibility of private individuals making profits.

Second solution was that nations which needed clothing to complete their economic development, should be allowed to import raw materials if the territory needed is its own.

Third solution was that nations which needed clothing to complete their economic development, should be allowed to import raw materials if the territory needed is its own.

This is only one of several important matters awaiting disposal by cabinet council. It is expected the government will decide early in the week which of the high court judges will be appointed to investigate the contract awarded to the John Inglis Company of Toronto for 7,000 Bren machine guns.

Some definite information on the trade negotiations in Washington will probably come about this week so that the Prime Minister will be able to make his plans for future engagements. He has been keeping his cabinet clear of the contingency of having to go to Washington in connection with the revised Canada-United States trade agreement on which negotiations have been progressing since early spring.

PRINCIPLES NOT PERSONALITIES LABOR NEEDS

International Work Leaders Hear Louis Hines at Toronto

TORONTO, Sept. 6.—Labor leaders of Canada, Great Britain and the United States participated in the Canadian National Exhibition's Labor Day demonstration Monday. Elby Edwards, secretary of the Mineworkers' International Federation and the Mine-workers Federation of Great Britain, and Louis G. Hines, director of organization for the American Federation of Labor, were speakers at a rally in the N.E. grounds.

The labor movement of the world must rely on great principles rather than great personalities, said Edwards in a plea for solidarity in the trades union movement. There was a lack of loyalty and honesty among the union men themselves, he charged.

A parade in which gathered for the open-air labor speeches and the alliance as Louis Hines, director of organization for the American Federation of Labor, delivered a denunciation of the Committee for Industrial Organization and the policies of its chairman, John L. Guide No. 41 Tells How She Became Heralded As Joan Of Arc Of China

NEW YORK, Sept. 6.—Guide No. 41 told Monday how she became the Joan of Arc of China.

To millions of Chinese, Miss Yang Hui-Min is known by no other name than Guide No. 41. In her country she attained fame nearly a year ago by making daring trips through a "no man's land" in Shanghai to carry a flag and food to a beleaguered battalion.

Shrewd Madame Chiang Kai-Shek, wife of the dictator, then sent the girl touring the country to stir up other young bloods.

Now the 23-year-old heroine—she says she's 23 by Chinese reckoning—has been seen at the United States fair of a tour of American colleges to win sympathy and aid of American youth for China.

Over a couple of bouts of Hitler's nest song in a Mott street barroom, she recalled she was doing relief work with Boy Scouts and Girl Guides in Shanghai when her most recent trip.

"We heard 800 Chinese were massacred in a sack-rat building in 'Chapek', she said. "We were thrilled because they massacred them for no reason. It was a strategic ground. On three sides Japanese guns were trained on them. One of the British as well as Japanese marksmen watched."

"I was so curious, I wanted to see the 'doomed battalion' and take the example as a sign of courage to the rest of the world. I had to get by those Tommies. I finally got around them."

"I took four hours to crawl and dodge across the 'no man's land' and then I was in. But first I had to make the trip 'over the top.' She carried food and provisions. They were delighted with the order for the Chinese to 'retreat'—a word which they did not understand and enter the settlement.

The automobile killed at least 223. Drowning, stabbings, shootings, boat explosions, train mishaps, suicides, fires, lightning and freak mishaps also reaped their toll.

A parachute jumper in Pennsylvania, a mountain climber in the Adirondacks, a suffocation victim in a home-made diving suit in Missouri joined in the grim parade.

Fire Issues Death As Air Ship Bounces Around From House to House

LONDON, Sept. 6.—A Royal Air Force plane, crashing and having a fire, in a densely populated London suburb, caused 10 deaths and serious injury to 15 Sunday as it struck two houses, spreading fire and wreckage in one of Great Britain's most extraordinary air tragedies.

The pilot, Sergeant S. B. Morris, only occupant of the plane, was one of those killed. When his craft lost altitude over the suburb of Edmonton, it crashed against a house and dropped to the street, killing a boy who was at play.

Then it bounced to the roof of another house and burst into flames.

The world there's only one

● Leadership can only come to one tire . . . and in only one way . . . through unrivalled quality, value and service. For 23 years now, the motorists of this country and of other countries throughout the world, have bought more Goodyear tires than any other kind.

This consistent endorsement of Goodyear tires is the one infallible guide in tire buying. It means that neither claims nor words have sold Goodyear tires but that the motorists' choice has been based on actual experience . . . on day by day, year by year unbeatable performance, economy and safety.

In its twenty-third year of leadership Goodyear has created the fourth great modern safety factor in motoring . . . protection against blowout danger . . . the LIFEGUARD. Like all-steel bodies, four-wheel brakes and shatterless glass the LIFEGUARD protects life, limb and property. Only Goodyear can say "danger from blowouts is now ended" . . . for Goodyear alone makes LifeGuards.

Be wise . . . drive in and let the Goodyear dealer in your community show you how little it will cost to equip your present car with new Goodyears . . . and LifeGuards . . . today!

A Notable Exhibit

The fact that one million people are expected to view the $65,000 exhibit prepared by the Imperial Oil Company at the Canadian National Exhibition in Toronto to show the progress and development of the oil industry in the province is a notable exhibit.

All that need be said in praise of this monumental exhibit, which has been crowned with tributes from everyone seeing it, is that it is worthy of its inspiring theme. For it records in vivid form the phenomenal progress made by Turner Valley in the past two years.

Residents of Alberta have long been proud of Turner Valley. They know its value as a supreme economic asset to the province and the Dominion as a whole. In recent months its progress, always steady, has been spectacular and all eyes point to still greater advances by it in the days that lie immediately ahead. Turner Valley definitely has come into its own.

The million people seeing its growth, in miniature, at the Toronto exhibition may feel assured that this triumph of oil development and achievement will alter the destiny of Turner Valley.

Germany Celebrates

From the city of Nuremberg in Germany we take some tidings in the next few days that will tell the world if its fears are to be eased or if a new scourge is to fall upon it. It is there that Hitler, in all the trappings and pomp of military might, will hold court at his annual Nazi congress, now just getting underway.

It was in 1933, at Nuremberg, that Hitler first said that his regime was to be based on racial purity. It was there that the mailed fist first was clenched.

The next year Hitler boasted of how he had made the German army the past master of Europe, and ordered by crushing Roehm and his friends in the brutal June purge.

Nuremberg in 1935 saw the new Swastika flag made the national emblem. It also heard the Chancellor rejoice in conspiracy, such Geneva, and order Germany to arm at a frantic pace and for an ominous purpose.

It trembled twelve months later at Hitler's passionate protest against Russia and his unshamed avowal that Germany hungered for the riches of the Ukraine.

Last year he turned a few graceful axes to the Berlin-Rome-Tokyo axis to show that it was strong enough to sustain the weight of aggression then being planned by the dictators. How true that staggering boast was, peace-lovers need not now be told.

What will Hitler's theme be now? Will it be a brazen challenge or a cautious compromise? We will soon know.

A Novel Suggestion

Not least among Sir Edward Beatty's assets is the ability to see an old problem in a new light. Even at the risk of coining a paradox, he is not afraid to urge a tax holiday in order that the relief thus afforded might teach people, by contrast, to know the weight of excessive taxation. In fact, he would have governments pile up deficits for a while if only voters will demand some new services from the government they, and only they, have to pay for them.

There is no one so poor whose poverty is not aggravated when reckless taxes are imposed or a riot of extravagance takes place. The idea that none but the rich suffer is a myth, and a stupid one at that. But the chief value of Sir Edward's remarks at Vancouver is found in the mood that inspired them. He belongs to that noble but steadily shrinking group which still believes in the supremacy of private enterprise. He would probably feel shattered if called an apostle of individualism.

He abhors that concept of the state which makes a government the chief employment agency of the country. Like Sir William Beveridge, the famed English economist, he believes that unemployment is a problem of industry and can be solved by industry alone.

Men in public life, as a rule, do not speak with his emphasis of those shoddy sophists who want governments to order business about as if it were mere hush-money. That is why Sir Edward Beatty's speech is important. They are more than expressions of personal opinion. They typify the convictions of business leaders all over Canada who lack either the clarity or the courage to voice their passionate beliefs.

Viscount Runciman

A statesman has been defined as a man of common opinions and uncommon abilities. To few people can that description apply so aptly as to Viscount Runciman, the amateur diplomat whose fate has cast for so leading a part in these tragic times.

He is 68 years old and sometimes complains that he finds it hard to be at home in the House of Lords, where he is one of the new members. Only a month was given him in which to study the issues that embitter the Czech problem he is to mediate. He cannot speak Czech and even his German is rather feeble. But his very faults make him an ideal man for his present job, since he will view each fact with an open mind and will have ample opportunity to show his genius for compromise.

This tall, fastidious, cultured Englishman, a former chairman of the board of trade, is just the sort of man Premier Chamberlain would trust with a delicate task.

The prime minister prefers the sober sanity of a business leader to the more sparkling talents of a trained diplomat. And when he recalls that Runciman swallowed his pride and accepted the job on his own plan for tariffs, it is no wonder that Mr. Chamberlain believes his envoy will be the slave of no formula, will let facts be his master, and will be able to appease the clash of divergent views.

The last important mission Viscount Runciman must see President Roosevelt about. If he is as successful in Czechoslovakia, he will rank among that great company of English statesmen who influence events, even though they walk softly.

Canada and Defence

Canada as a whole is not isolationist, although isolationism is extremely strong. She is not ready to accept the "British Front policy" and is receding from it. The recent actions of the Chamberlain Government have weakened faith in Britain. The support of the co-operation of their country with the Commonwealth and the League has been sadly damaged. British action in Spain have brought distrust to Liberals and, although welcomed by the Roman Catholic French-Canadian of Quebec, have not been able to win the support of the one of the most important influences on Canadian foreign policy. So Canada will go her way, determined to do nothing to disturb her close friendship with the United States determined to maintain her connection with the Commonwealth, but steadily independent in the matter of any policy for a system of international security. This does not mean that co-operation (as in the armament orders announced recently) will not be forthcoming, but it means that there may have severe limits and that the British Government cannot take anything for granted.—Manchester Guardian.

The Passing Show

By J. S. COWPER

Nothing seems so small for the German Nazis to overlook in this phobia against the unfortunate Jewish minority in their midst. They who are mobilizing armies on behalf of the Sudeten minority in Czechoslovakia are determined to take away the last shred of right from this racial minority of their own people—large numbers of whom fought for Germany in the Great War.

Jews in Germany are barred from the professions, customs and excise duties, and they patronize their shops. Ordinary police protection is denied them against Nazi Nazis. A Berlin court has sanctioned the breaking of apartment house leases where Jewish family lives under the same roof. In an effort to drive them empty-handed from Germany no Jew may now sell a safety-deposit box in company with a Nazi police officer. It is an offence for a Jew to have a car license under the serial number 300,000—an invitation to Nazi mobs to molest cars with higher numbers.

I've been reading the full list of given names sent out by the Reichstag. Paul Gottlieb to designate Jews. Neither Joseph nor Paul is on the list, nor John nor Sedgewick either. But I am and I am for insult. But I am for some of my Edmonton acquaintances like Bud, Bud, Fee and "Danny" Lynch—both of Irish Catholic origin—"Bud" and "Dan" and "Danny" are of Czech blood. The New Zealand border is another name only to be borne by members of the persecuted race. Some bespectacled German professor was regarded as a Jewish enemy some day, showing that the English are of Semitic origin, and proving it by the old song, "Sally in the alley."

All of the girls that are so smart, They are the darling of the smart, And she lives in her ghetto.

Discovery that the "dangerous area" for men is the most contributory to knowledge made by the savants who attended the sessions of the Society for the Advancement of Science held at Cambridge. They think it may be possible to predict depressions like they now predict the weather. Sir John Sedgewick pointed out that depressions have never been known to start between February and July—due to the fact that harvests give to trade. In England, the last three depressions started in September.

You imagine a man who is not a scientist predicting depressions? Skill at the task would be added proof of insanity. No matter how scientific or impersonal the method, the prediction of the weather is a very difficult task. I've invited odium by predicting the failure of the wheat pool. Wheat can be grown in any moderate climate. The New Zealand border pool had previously failed, and the Egyptian cotton pool also, though both were backed by government finance.

The new agreement between Canada and the United States, providing for the deportation of "white slaves" was put into effect today when men were deported from Toronto and arrested in Buffalo.

Cranbrook Celebrates Railroad Steel Event

PIONEERS IN ASSEMBLY FOR C.P.R. FUNCTION

Colorful Parade Inaugurates 40th Anniversary Of First Steel in Rockies

CRANBROOK, B.C., Sept. 6.—Residents and former residents of this eastern British Columbia city Monday jammed streets to watch a children's parade and listen to band music at the opening of the pioneer reunion celebrating the 40th anniversary of Canadian Pacific Railway company's Cross Near gas branch line.

SPokane People First
The first pioneers to register for the celebration were Mr. and Mrs. A. Jones of Spokane, residents of Cranbrook in 1898.

R. Edgewood of Chapman, B.C., captured the five-mile road race in the sport which was held in the morning. To the celebration with R. Miles of Nelson placed second, H. White, Bill Purvis and Bernard Harcourt, all of Cranbrook, finished in that order in the four-mile bicycle race.

Distribution of prizes for drawing and competition was followed by the closing of the amateur road race in the morning. To the celebration in charge of the radio range band station here, and C.P.R. Dominion division of transport.

ROARING WIND

Thunder and a whirling wind, which nearly blew gulls colored street decorations as far as the airport, greeted early devotees to the six-day reunion, from Alberta, Washington and British Columbia.

One of the radicans, A. L. Budworth, called all the way from Hartford, Conn.

Barbells, bowling and tennis were the sport program for the day.

Female fought a cloud of dust to take Lumberman 9-1 in a game which was decided by a close run.

Darryl Ironside was the main event, with the boys' and girls' singles title in the junior division.

Women's boys' double crown was taken by Ironside and Allan MacKay, and the girls' double crown by Suzanne Harrison and Ruth Hardy.

MANNING SAYS INTERIM PLAN NOW UNDERWAY

Minister Tells Meeting Sorely Keenly Anticipated

Many residents are looking forward with keen anticipation to the interim program with which the Social Credit Board and our technicians are so busily engaged at the present time," Hon. Ernest C. Manning, minister of trade and industry declared, in addressing the Edmonton Proletarian Bible Conference at the Grand Theatre on Sunday.

Mr. Manning, in following this statement, declared that "We are delighted to receive to many assurances of 100 per cent co-operation and support. There is hope for any people who are ever willing to help themselves by cooperative effort."

He extended his thanks to the sponsors of the meeting, and he recalled that next Sunday the Conference would be addressed by Premier William Abernethy.

CO-OPERATION
Continuing, Mr. Manning declared that "I would like at this time to express our thanks to all those groups and individuals who have assisted in the planning and execution of the last week. These many assurances of your co-operation and whole-hearted support in the work we are endeavoring to do are very precious to us."

He recalled that some correspondents were deriving no little amusement from those who sought to discredit the government and who sought to create the impression that Social Credit was on the wane.

SAYS DISTORTION
He declared that "it is becoming more and more evident that fewer and fewer people take seriously the current newspaper articles which so evidently are distorted by political malice or a desire to discredit those with whom the paper happens to disagree. It is also evident that the realization of this state of affairs is not confined to this province."

He then read an article sent him, clipped from a Washington Labor paper in which Senator Milton of the United States, charged that U.S. speculators saw the plunge.

Cancer Cases Not More Excessive But Modern Science Discovers Them

VICTORIA, Sept. 6.—Dr. William Boyd of the Manning Institute of Toronto told the annual meeting of the North Pacific Society of Internal Medicine here last night he believed the so-called late increase in cancer cases was not an increase, but due to improved modern diagnosis which has brought the cases to light.

Statistics and statements from all parts of the world had told of the increase of the disease over the past 20 years, the Toronto doctor said. However, methods of diagnosis had improved considerably over the past 20 years, he said.

Actually, he said, there had been little increase in cases of cancer of the lung or bronchial tubes. He believed the improved science of diagnosing the disease had brought many cases to light which otherwise would have advanced unknown to patient or doctor.

Dr. George D. Caperton of Seattle told the meeting he had obtained results in the treatment of "inhalation hypoxemia" or low blood pressure by use of oxygen, after experimenting with various other drugs.

Dr. Merle W. Moore of Portland declared where other treatment had failed in most cases of asthma, he found injections of iodine oil into the bronchial tubes had been successful in about 25 per cent of the cases.

Dr. George H. Anderson of Spokane, Dr. Edwin K. Rogers of Portland, Dr. James M. Bowers of Seattle, Dr. Howard Hamilton of Seattle, will give addresses at tomorrow's concluding session.

PARLAY FAILS IN PARACHUTE DEATH GAMBLE

ROANOK, Ill., Sept. 6.—Edward Parlay, 61, of Terre Haute, Ind., lost a three-parachute parlay against death Monday.

Parlay leaped from a gas filled balloon with three parachutes in a "triple jump" exhibition. The first chute opened and he let go, but the second chute failed to open and he fell to his death from about 1,000 feet. Some 3,000 spectators saw the plunge.

Modern Job Glad He Has Hay Left

WASHINGTON, Sept. 6.—Cholera killed several of his hogs.

George I. was lucky after a broken arm in a fall. Another was hurt when he was struck by a cyclone near the roof from his barn. Lightning damaged what was left.

But Charles Fultz still had some optimism left. Said he:

"I guess I was lucky after all. The hay and the other stuff in the barn was wet and wouldn't hurt."

According to a British medical expert, crying is a healthy reaction. Tears are the most powerful germicides in existence.

Raising A Family

BY

Teachers cannot be discovered with divine rods, like the living springs. It might be a good idea if they could be, but like the perfect in all responsible positions, these leaders of modern youth must be chosen by methods less mystical.

However, it is not as it used to be, where only a certificate in subjects was necessary to qualify a woman to import "learning" to the young.

O. R. Barton today, training methods make a tremendous point of psychology, and sympathetic understanding of child nature. Few teachers enter their profession without a thorough course in modern management.

Still and all, the human element is there. There are dozens of excellent teachers for every one who is not made of teacher stuff, yet even so no two superior ones are alike. Just as no two mothers are alike, if the father and mother could be selected, the absolutely perfect instructor, perhaps it would never be found again.

In short, who is the perfect teacher? I don't know. No one does. There is no perfect teacher, lawyer or leader. No perfect anyone, although Dr. Jekyll can be perfect. White, he may be completely puzzled by Mrs. Black's case. The lawyer may win a trial for his client and by the same methods lose a similar suit for another client. Besides, the human element part does not pertain entirely to the teacher. There are forty human elements in every school room, each different, each with individuality of its own.

Miss Gray may be the perfect teacher of James. Toward Hilda she may develop a sense of failure, either on Hilda's part or on her own. Nature often eludes human times they blend; again they remain merely indifferent to each other.

Children will hear harder for the teacher who "like." What this thinking consists of is less a formula, also "dialize" is exactly, will forever remain a secret. I've had children who warmed my heart instantly, where former teachers had had trouble. And I have had the reverse experience of impatience, anxiously concealed, over a child, I've never known, though perfect.

TEACHERS MUST PLEASE MANY
What comes of this rubbing of feelings—or let us just say difference in relationship—when a child changes teachers, when a child makes new adjustments, sometimes uncomfortable ones for him? Well, I'll tell you, mother. It is rather good for him. He has to find out soon or late that he is not the best under all circumstances, and the more he leaves prejudice behind.

Every teacher has to conduct her school somewhat formally and reward her class with some emotion. She is first officer, and so representative system that requires conformity. Work is the item she must concentrate on, work, and as much individual guidance as the has time for. But it is unfair to think of her as heartless. Remember the last forty or so individuals to please, while James has only one.

Spectator Sport Costume

Without doubt, few of the optimistic young ladies who march so confidently to the altar realize the dream and find marriage the heaven on earth that they expected it to be. Nevertheless, there are many consolation prizes in the matrimonial lottery, and happily enough the disappointed and peevish husbands and wives, who rend the air with their complaints against marriage, are happier than they think they are.

For proof of this we have the indisputable fact that those who rail loudest against the disillusion and restrictions of the holy state almost invariably rack back into it when such a divorce court order comes of what they have regarded as their prison.

Nothing is more obvious than that marriage and the people who are the simple life, and so the grumbling of husbands and wives at each other is to be taken no more seriously than their grumbling about their jobs, or their homes, or their cars. Finding fault is a sort of compensation for them and doesn't in the least indicate that they are not perfectly satisfied with things as they are.

Also, husbands and wives complain against each other as often as they do, their way of boasting and calling attention to their own virtues.

And more of us have ever seen one of these husband-and-wife wranglers that couldn't have been avoided either one as a married couple, or as a single person. And when you are a married couple, it is a great if you don't.

For Fun and Profit Learn Ventriquism

Pigeon Fancier Reports Double Hatching Here
Through some strange quirk of nature, and understandable to the layman, two hatching pigeons belonging to Sam Vayer of 9409 11th Avenue, were hatched from one egg. Mr. Vayer, who has been about 20 years in his hobby, has concluded that the two birds were so closely entwined together that after the shell was broken they could not separate and so did not survive. They were of a Belgian variety.

SCHOOL BEGS BRING 18,000 BACK TO STUDY

445 Teachers In Charge As Lessons Resumed After Vacation

Brilliant sun in a calm sky, a brisk breeze with a tang of autumn and the first thrills of yellow showing in the trees formed the perfect setting for school opening.

The crisp autumn air was cut by the clang of half a hundred gongs as children all over the city marched into class rooms for the first roll call of the new term.

NEW MEMBERS

In the public schools 445 teachers took charge of nearly 18,000 pupils and of their teachers, 28 are new members on the staff.

Some 2,000 pupils are enrolled at the separate schools, while private and boarding schools are registering several hundreds.

First day's exercises consist of registration, arrangement of classes, outlining of necessary texts and exercise books—then the afternoon off to buy books.

Children have been changed to some extent. Physical education is stressed to a larger extent than before and the public school board new physical training supervisor starts his duties this term.

CHANCE MADE

In high schools, grade 11 has been changed to conform to the city police force's 12-12-12 on the old basis, and one more year.

On holidays are over, summer cottages are closed up and work starts.

TRIO ARRESTED AFTER BATTLE ON 97 STREET

Four Officers Quell Night Fight—Assault Charges Are Laid

Street warfare moved into Edmonton for a short time Saturday night as three disturbers of the peace, a crowd of their sympathizers and four members of the city police force staged a battle royal in front of the Hudson Hall on 97 street.

When the din and damage had ended, Maurice Vandenberg, William Carver and Edward Lockyer were in the police station cells, charged with assaulting police officers. They were scheduled to appear in court Tuesday.

Cruising past the spot at about 8:30 p.m., Detective Ed. Kenney and Wm. Smith noticed three bell-bottomed individuals pushing people around in the street. Stopping to investigate, the two law-enforcers saw into a horridly riot when they attempted to break up the party.

AID CALLED

Answering a call for reinforcements from the police station, Constables E. Ford and C. Burnside joined in the fray, and the three involved who had been actively assisted by several onlookers, were vanquished and parked in the police cells.

Carver, who took to his heels in the midst of the fracas, was picked up almost immediately in the patrol wagon, and showed his displeasure by kicking out the back window of the Black Maria.

STUFF JOLTS

Detectives Kenney and Smith took a few stiff jolts in the battle, and Constables Ford and Burnside did not escape unscathed either. But the tough trio were looking at straggled scenery all week-end.

CAR, TRUCK IN HILL ACCIDENT: DRIVER SOUGHT

Swinging sharply across the street to avoid a truck which came out of the Grierson hill road onto the Low Level bridge stretch at 3 p.m. Saturday, Dr. Edith Hamilton, of Lacme, ran her car into the south curb of the street and caused a front-end crash and damaged the left rear tire. The truck crashed into the right end of the car, damaging the wheel.

Dr. Hamilton, who was taking a child to the hospital in the car, explained her predicament to the truck driver, who drove off after making no attempt to aid her, according to the police report.

Police, who have the license number of the truck, are seeking him on a charge of failing to report an accident and for negligent driving.

William Heale, Toronto, general manager of the Canada Life Insurance Company, is in Edmonton on a business visit to the Edmonton branch. With Mrs. Heale he is a guest at the Macdonald and will return east this week.

The Old Gang All There At This Reception

"I'm glad to be home!" That was the answer given by Jenny Morris, beloved of Canadian war veterans, and particularly the Princess Patricia, when she arrived in Edmonton Sunday for a five-day stay. Main item on the agenda at the gathering will be a report by the president, H. A. Doyle, of the recent Canadian Corps reunion at Toronto. He will devote special attention to the formation by the Corps Association as a whole, of a permanent and separate section in Edmonton.

At the meeting there will be a singing program, with accompaniment and separate selections by the corps orchestra.

The meeting will be given to the meeting respecting a golf tournament, to be sponsored by the association, to be held at Elk Island Park on September 11.

Queer-Shaped Egg Is Found On Farm By Edmonton Girl

The box was hardly opened in The Bulletin news room before an argument started amongst the staff. The city editor called it an Indian club egg. The telegraph editor said, "Oh, a dumb egg." The writer says it's a bottle egg. Anyway, it's an egg.

Miss Marcelle Garnier, 9555 Jasper Avenue, found this queer-shaped figure-flick on the farm of her father, Mr. Ullrich.

It starts out to be an egg, all right, but then gets squarish in the middle, or is it an Indian club handle. Anyway, it's a funny-looking egg.

Car Overtures On Lake Road: Driver Injured

Swinging too wide on a turn on the Cooking Lake road at 1 a.m. Sunday, a car operated by Robert Clark, 1000 90 Avenue west, ran off the soft edge of the gravel and rolled over. Clark suffered cuts and bruises, but five passengers in the auto with him were unhurt.

VARIED EVENTS ENJOYED OVER LABOR HOLIDAY

Fine weather features Week-End—Many Take Outings

Favored by weather as near-perfect as could be expected, Edmontonians enjoyed the full day of the summer holiday week-end. On all sides and in every direction there was diversion and entertainment, with sports events vying with the quieter forms of amusement.

Evenings were rated in the "beautiful" class, the warm, bright heat from shining down as enchanting as it ever did in a period of partial ball. Fun advantage was taken of the hilly, buxom, motorists and pedestrians to say nothing of those who sought quiet byways for walks and talks.

SPORT PROGRAM

Bowling, golf, baseball, softball, and other outdoor sports were the larger following. Soccer and a ladies' track meet drew many to Clarke Stadium.

Bowling was going strong at various places. Baseball held sway at Redfern Park. Homecoming girls were seen in various parts of the city. Hitch-hikers and motorists were seen going in all directions.

Hundreds went to the airport to see the planes in action. Hundreds more stood on 101 street to watch the flight of the new biplane in action at Eaton's new store.

THEATRE RE-OPENS

The Capitol theatre reopened its doors Saturday after being re-furnished and refurbished and on Sunday several thousand persons made inspection trips through the building. Other theatres had midnight shows, but the Capitol was closed on Sunday or else provided special features for the holiday.

Police and fire departments reported moderate activity.

MERCURY UP TO NEW HIGH AT WEEK-END

Zooms To 90 Above Saturday —Hottest Day This Year

Skyrocketing to a new high for this year, the mercury in the weather-glass shot up and up Saturday afternoon, dropping only a trifle in the evening, when a temperature of 90 was reached as thousands of Edmontonians mopped dripping brows under the scorching heat of a torrid sun.

Saturday's reading was the highest point reached by the mercury in September since 1880, a year in which it registered the former 1905 high of 90 recorded July 22.

Weather over the long week-end remained generally fair and warm, the temperature on Sunday dropping just three degrees below the record high of Saturday to reach a reading of 87. The thermometer in comparison to the minor heat waves of the previous ten days, the thermometer recorded a reading of 84 at 4 a.m. Monday and continued on its downward journey until Tuesday morning's low of 52 was reached at 4 a.m. Rising another two degrees at 8 and then rising again to 82 at 4 p.m.

Light rains at 1:30 Monday afternoon and evening deposited 0.1 inches of moisture over the city. All points in the near north received heavy rains over the week-end. In that area, the weather was in the clouds, with probable showers, while the forecast for Edmonton is fair and warm.

OSTRICHES DO NOT HAVE BRIGHT-COLORED FEATHERS!

The brightest ostrich feathers on women's hats did not get their beautiful colors from the ostrich, but from the ostrich's dye pots. Male ostriches have black and white feathers, and the females have dull grey ones. Those from the males are used most widely in commerce, for they are easily dyed, especially the white ones. An ostrich would not recognize its own feathers if it ever saw them on a woman's hat.

Roughriders Tame Calgary Bronks 9-0

Winnipeg, Man., Sept. 6.—Winnipeg's mighty Blue Bombers, undoubtedly the strongest football machine in this city has ever fielded, and played a sensational game that had been played and the impressive potential power in the Eskimo machine. Edmonton will jam the Winnipeg stands to capacity if they should play here again this season.

From start to finish the game was one of the most sensational of the season. The Blue Bombers, who were only one point behind the Saskatchewan Roughriders at the end of the first half, were completely out of the game by the end of the second quarter. The backfield is showing real promise though, and once we get our line working better our ball carriers will be getting their share of yardage. I don't worry about it. We may be able to beat the Roughriders this season, but I don't want to win one or two home games from the other clubs."

Vancouver Pro Takes Alberta Open Golf Title

CALGARY, Sept. 6.—Freddie Wood, professional of the Fraser Golf Club, Vancouver, who on Aug. 18 won the British Columbia open championship, added the Alberta open title to this list when he led a field of 64 others in the annual two-day tournament concluded at the Calgary Country Club Monday. Wood carried a 26 total for the 72 holes, four under par figure and established a competitive course record of 65, five under par in the final round.

The new champion defeated Stan Leonard, pro of Hastings Park Club, Vancouver, who won the title at Edmonton a year ago, finishing two strokes up on Leonard.

Wilt Greenwood, pro of the Kingsway Club, Regina, shot a sub par 69 to take a one-stroke lead over Leonard at the end of the first round. Leonard carded a 68 to take a four-stroke lead at the halfway mark. At the end of the second round Leonard was up 10 strokes with a second place finish. Wood finished his margin to five strokes with a 65 in second position.

WOOD HOT
Wood fairly "burned up" the course during the final 18 holes. The new title-holder went in with a five under 65, shot a 68 to take a one-stroke lead over Leonard. Leonard, who paced the field for three-quarters of the tournament, weakened during the final half of the final round.

HEATY MATCH
Henry Martell, of the Highland Club, Edmonton, and then Colk, assistant pro at Jericho, were the main contenders in the final place with scores of 70 each for the 72 holes. Martell, runner-up in the 1937 tournament, was the leading amateur of the tournament.
